About Dinka

Dinka is the language of the communities of the southern Sudan region of Africa. Although there are dialect differences, the Dinka language is a common, uniting bond throughout the region which has about 3 million people.

As more members of the Dinka-speaking community arrive and settle in South Australia, the School of Languages is working to maintain the language heritage that they bring with them.

Dinka was introduced at the School of Languages in 2006 and enrolments have grown significantly since then.

SACE Language and Culture Course

Students should have some background in or prior knowledge of Dinka, and will have studied the language for 400-500 hours by the time they have completed Stage 2, or have the equivalent level of knowledge.

They develop and apply linguistic and inter-cultural knowledge, understanding, and skills to interact and communicate appropriately and effectively in Dinka in a variety of contexts for a range of purposes and audiences.

Students develop and extend their ability to communicate across cultural boundaries.

Stage 1 - Credits: 10 or 20
