

WHO ARE WE?

The School of Languages is a government school established 37 years ago. We offer 22 languages after school hours, in 25 different locations around the metropolitan area, to over 2,000 students from all schooling sectors.

Our aim is to enhance access, choice and continuity in language learning for South Australian learners. Our programs complement and supplement languages programs offered in mainstream schools and community schools.

WHY ENROL?

- * Courses offered out-of-school hours without clashing with your day school's timetable.
- * End of Term reports sent home and to your day school.
- * The more languages you learn the better job opportunities you'll have in the future.

ABOUT BOSNIAN

The Bosnian language comes from the Slavic group of languages and is written with both the Cyrillic and Latin alphabets. It is the official language of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Bosnian language and culture have made significant contributions in literature, art and music. The very famous ballad Hasanaginica originating from the Bosnian region has been translated into more than 40 languages.

Significant numbers of Bosnia and Herzegovina born migrants arrived in Australia in the early 1990s but migration has declined since then. There are approximately 25 000 Bosnia and Herzegovina born people in Australia, meaning that there are career prospects in interpreting and translating, community welfare or in the diplomatic service for Bosnian-speaking graduates in Australia.

Bosnian has been taught at The School of Languages since 2006.
